

Friday October 30

Woodley Park News

Stanford University invites you to attend a reception to celebrate the opening of its new exhibition, Building Books: The Art of David Macaulay, on Tuesday November 3 from 5:30 to 8 pm. Macaulay is a pen-and-ink artist and author-illustrator of books, most notably, on architecture and design. His books have sold more than two million copies in the United States and been translated into a dozen languages. His work was exhibited last year at the National Building Museum. The show will run through February 15. Reception RSVPs to Meghvi Roig.

The WPCA Acorn newsletter is coming to you by snail mail. If you can't wait, you can read it online now.

CALENDAR

Second District police station Halloween party on Saturday, October 31 from 6 to 9 pm. There will be a DJ, a best costume contest, prizes and (of course) candy.

The District Department of Transportation will share its thoughts about DC's transit future. Wednesday, November 4 at Stoddert Elementary, 4001 Calvert St., from 7 to 8:30 pm.

DC WASA will have a Combined Sewer Overflow informational meeting on Thursday, November 5 at the Cleveland Park Library at 6:30 pm.

The WPCA Executive Committee usually meets on the first Wednesday of the month; the next meeting will be at 7:30 pm on Wednesday November 4 at Stanford (Connecticut Ave and Woodley Rd). A draft agenda should be posted on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome.

WPCA Fall meeting and elections, November 18, 7:30 pm at St Thomas Apostle Church (27th Street and Woodley Road).

John Goodman
Past pres., WPCA
For more information, visit <http://www.wpcaonline.org/>

© Woodley Park Community Association