

Saturday November 14

Woodley Park News

Rev. Scotty McLennan, the Dean for Religious Life at Stanford University, will discuss his latest book, Jesus Was a Liberal, on Monday, November 16 at Stanford (2661 Connecticut Ave.), 6 pm refreshments, 7 pm discussion. RSVP to Meghvi Roig.

WPCA elections and Fall meeting: The following members have been nominated so far: for President, Jay Sushelsky; VP, Barbara Ioanes; Secretary, Sarah Ensign; Treasurer, Bruce Forrest; Executive Committee, Bill Menczer, Peter Brusoe, Paul Poe, Emily Wagner and Tamora Ilasat. Additional nominations may be made either by contacting Nominations Committee chair Bill Menczer or from the floor at the meeting.

Speakers at the meeting will include representatives from WASA (to discuss the sewer separation project that will disrupt Connecticut Ave.), DC Urban Forestry and the school Chancellor's office. If you have questions that you want to make sure a speaker is prepared to answer, get them to Jay Sushelsky so he can pass them on before the meeting.

Wednesday, November 18, 7:30 pm at St Thomas Apostle Church (27th Street and Woodley Road, use 27th Street entrance). Light refreshments will be served.

CALENDAR

Solar energy workshop. The President of the Mt. Pleasant Solar Coop, Anya Schoolman, will hold a workshop on the lessons learned by the Coop over the last three years. This will be an opportunity to learn about organization, costs, negotiating with installers etc. Wednesday, November 18, at 7 pm on 28th St. near Cathedral Ave. If you are interested, contact Jim Landberg.

The WPCA Executive Committee usually meets on the first Wednesday of the month; the next meeting will be at 7:30 pm on Wednesday December 2 at Stanford (Connecticut Ave and Woodley Rd). A draft agenda should be posted on the website a few days before the meeting. All are welcome.

John Goodman
Past pres., WPCA
For more information, visit <http://www.wpcaonline.org/>

© Woodley Park Community Association