

Woodley Park News

Noodles & Company wants to open a restaurant at 2635 Connecticut Ave, the site of the old Sake Club. Cava, which serves "unique Greek-inspired dishes", is looking at a storefront on the other side of the street. Both businesses need special permission from the DC Board of Zoning Adjustment to move into the Woodley Park business district. Noodles also wants a sidewalk café, and copies of its zoning and sidewalk café applications are on our website. Representatives from both restaurants will discuss their businesses and answer questions at a WPCA meeting at 7:30 pm on Wednesday April 6th at Stanford (Connecticut Ave and Woodley Rd).

The good news is that replacement Visitor Parking Passes should be in the mail. The bad news is that your pass might be defective. If your new pass doesn't have a serial number and identify ANC3C, contact Damon Harvey at DDoT.

Help plant 28 trees. On Saturday April 2nd, meet by 9 am at 3221 Woodland Drive for registration, coffee and bagels and then dig a hole and plant a tree. Trees, refreshment, guidance, all equipment and a lunch after work is done provided by Casey Trees and the Woodland Normanstone association. RSVP for planting and lunch.

The Friends of Rock Creek's Environment is looking for help to care for the park during the annual Rock Creek Extreme Cleanup, Saturday, April 9th, 9 am to noon. One of the clean-up locations is Shoreham Drive, near the hotel of the same name, but there are many more throughout the Park. Check their website for more information.

DEA and the MPD have scheduled the second National Prescription Drug Take Back Day for Saturday, April 30th (10 am to 2 pm) to provide a way for people to safely dispose of unwanted prescription drugs. One of the drop-off locations is the Second District MPD station at 3320 Idaho Avenue. Go here to learn more.

Home and Garden Television show "Bang For Your Buck" is looking for homeowners who might be interested in having their recently remodeled historic kitchens featured on its show. The deadline to express interest and begin the casting process is Monday, April 4th; you can request an application from Denielle Johnson or at (303) 872-8721.

We understand that the alley behind the 2600 block of Woodley Place will, at long last, be resurfaced, starting as early as May 6th.

CALENDAR

Woodley Park East-of-Connecticut Neighborhood Cleanup. Saturday April 9th, 9 am until finished. Clean the alley, the green space, overhanging limbs, the area going into the park...whatever is bothering you. Contact Judy Shapiro for more information.
