Woodley Park News

The problems that Cathedral Pharmacy on Connecticut Ave across from the Zoo is having with CVS Caremark have been reported in the Washington Post and the Northwest Current. WPCA and the Cleveland Park neighborhood association sent a letter to Caremark asking it to reconsider its decision to terminate the local pharmacy. The organizers of the online petition in support of the pharmacy will be wrapping it up in the next day or two; if you haven't signed, please consider doing so.

The Woodley Park East annual fall alley sale will be Saturday September 24 (rain date October 1). Contact Judy Shapiro for information.

CALENDAR

The Second District Police Station invites you to the National Night Out on August 2 at Hearst Recreation Center. The FBI will be there to fingerprint kids and to give parents ID kits, burglary prevention information will be given away and you can sign up for burglary home safety inspections. There will be crime prevention information and drug prevention information tables. For fun — a clown, moon bounce, canine unit, temporary tattoo artist and food. 3950 37th Street from 5 to 7 pm.

The WPCA Executive Committee usually meets on the first Wednesday of the month. However, the next meeting is not until September 7th unless something requires one before then.
