Woodley Park News

Lillies Restaurant (in the space previously occupied by Pesto and Mrs. Simpsons) is hosting a jewelry show by Woodley Park artist Joan Shapiro on Sunday September 18 from 1 to 4 pm. Questions can be posed to Joan at 667-2554 (and she accepts only cash or check at the show). Lillies is located at 2915 Connecticut Avenue.

WPCA elections will take place in November. If you want to get more involved in your neighborhood, one good way to do it is to get more involved in your neighborhood association. The terms of all four officers (president, VP, secretary and treasurer) and three at-large Board members expire with the upcoming elections. In addition, there is a vacant at-large position which will be filled in this election. The Executive Committee has named Rob Meisnere and Barbara Ioanes to the Nominations Committee for these elections. It is the job of that committee to collect the names of people interested in running (and those nominated by others), verify their eligibility and report the names of all the candidates to the Executive Committee. If you want more information about the elections or the various positions, you can ask Barbara or Rob, let me know or contact any other member of the Executive Committee.

A representative of Stop DC Gambling spoke to the WPCA Executive Committee at Wednesday's meeting. The group's website describes what it is all about and what it is trying to accomplish. If anyone thinks WPCA should support this effort, please let me or any other Board member know.

WPCA is a member of the Federation of Citizens Associations of the District of Columbia, along with dozens of other community groups throughout the city. The Federation takes positions on issues before the District government, presents testimony to the Council and other bodies and has regular monthly meetings with speakers on such topics. As a member, WPCA can have three delegates who represent WPCA and vote on questions before the Federation. If you are interested in being a delegate, contact Jay Sushelsky.
