Woodley Park News

Sunday October 30th is the date for the Woodley Park historical talk and walking tour. We'll meet at Stanford in Washington (2661 Connecticut Ave.) starting at 1 pm for some light refreshment before the talk starts at 1:30. After the talk will be a neighborhood walking tour, beginning at 2:15 and lasting about 90 minutes. No problem if you can come for only part of the program. Space is limited, so RSVP here.

WPCA Meeting. The WPCA Fall meeting and elections will be at Stanford on Wednesday November 2nd, starting at 7 pm. Speakers will be MPD Commissioner Cathy Lanier and Rock Creek Park Superintendent Tara Morrison. The meeting will also include elections for WPCA officers and Executive Committee members. Announced candidates are: President, Bill Menczer; Vice-President, Paul Poe; Secretary, Kate Bertram; Treasurer, Warren Gorlick; Executive Committee (three positions): Bruce Forrest, Sarah Taber Zev Lewis. Additional nominations can be made at the meeting.

"Pot Hop and Jam". Four well-known potters exhibit and sell their pots in neighborhood homes on Cathedral Avenue. Mark Shapiro and Sam Taylor from Massachusetts will show at 2226 Cathedral, the home of Judy (Mark's sister) and Rick Shapiro; Bruce Gholson and Samantha Henneke from North Carolina will show at 2202 Cathedral, the home of Matt Radford and Cass Johnson. There will also be a Saturday evening demonstration at Hinckley Pottery. Information: Judy Shapiro. Saturday October 22nd, 10 am to 5 pm and Sunday October 23rd, 11 am to 5 pm.

Neighborhood Security. Millicent West, Director, DC Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency, will join a "community conversation" on the role of neighborhood associations in neighborhood security planning and response, sponsored by the DC Federation of Citizens Associations. Tuesday October 25th, 6:45 pm at All Souls Memorial Episcopal Church, 2300 Cathedral Ave.

The University of the District of Columbia presents the 2011 JAZZ Alive Concert on Monday October 24th at 7:30 pm, featuring the UDC Jazz Ensemble and the Calvin Jones Legacy Ensemble with special guest, Bruce Williams and director Allyn Johnson. The University is offering a limited number VIP tickets with priority seating to members of the community. To reserve your tickets, contact Lee Brian Reba.
