

Friday March 7

Woodley Park News

Councilmember David Catania will speak at WPCA's Spring meeting, Wednesday April 2 at 7:30 pm at Stanford (2661 Connecticut Ave.). Also at the meeting will be an election to fill the Board seat that was vacated when Barbara Ioanes became VP; the Board appointed Gasper Martinez to fill the seat on an interim basis until the next meeting of the membership.

You've heard about the DCPS work to review and revise public school boundaries and feeder plans. Deputy Mayor for Education Abigail Smith will be at Wilson High School to provide a briefing, answer questions and hear comments on the subject on Wednesday March 12, 7 pm (enter through the doors to the theater wing on Chesapeake St). Additional information here and here.

There's been lots of information — and misinformation — circulated about the ongoing zoning regulation rewrite and the changes proposed by the Office of Planning. OP is holding a series of open houses around the city to discuss the proposals and answer questions about them. The current schedule is here.

Council Chair Phil Mendelson will host a town hall meeting on the District's recent real property tax assessments on Tuesday March 18 from 6:30 to 8 pm at the Cleveland Park Library. Assessment appeals must be filed by April 1.

Washington National Cathedral will host a neighborhood open house concerning the project to restore the interior of the nave and the exterior of the east end (apse) at 6:30 pm on Tuesday March 11 in the Cathedral's Perry Auditorium (enter through the NW cloister doors and take the elevators to the 7th floor).

The DC Public Library is considering whether to renovate or rebuild the Cleveland Park Library. Jennifer Giltrop, DCPL's Director of Public Services, and Jeff Bonvechio, Director of Capital Projects and Facilities Management, will discuss the status of this review at the Friends of the Cleveland Park Library's annual meeting on Saturday March 29 at 10 am in the first floor meeting room of the Library.

John Goodman

WPCA

For more information, visit <http://www.wpcaonline.org/>

© Woodley Park Community Association