Woodley Park News

If you live in a single-family home, you probably noticed that your property tax assessment increased by 7 or 8%. In Woodley Park, however, the value of your land probably increased by 20 to 25%. Home owners in Chevy Chase saw similar increases, but those in the neighborhoods in between did not (e.g., CP, Tenley, Forest Hills). I've asked OTR for an explanation -- as, more importantly, has CM Cheh. If you want to appeal your assessment for any reason, you can do it online by April 1.

WPCA's Spring meeting, featuring Councilmember David Catania, is Wednesday April 2 at 7:30 pm at Stanford (2661 Connecticut Ave.).

The Cleveland Park Library Spring Book Sale is on Saturday April 12 from 10 am to 4 pm and Sunday April 13 from 1:30 to 4 pm on the second floor of the Library.

Calendar

Friends of the Cleveland Park Library's annual meeting with discussion of options to renovate or rebuild the Cleveland Park Library. Saturday March 29 at 10 am in the first floor meeting room of the Library.

At the Tregaron Conservancy on Sunday April 6: 1 pm, a tree talk and walk, highlighting the trees of Tregaron and the challenges of owning and maintaining a historic woodland garden while restoring a dilapidated forest. 2 pm, invasive plant removal, bulb planting, debris removal and stream cleanup. Meet on the north meadow, near the Mansion. RSVP.

June 7, WPCA cleanout and shredding day.

June 14, Spring Picnic.
