WPCA Fall Meeting. Thursday November 17, 7:30 pm via Zoom. All are welcome.

Our guest speaker will be the winner of the Ward 3 DC Council election

Board elections. If you want to get more involved in your neighborhood, one good way to do it is to get more involved in your neighborhood association. The terms of all four officers (president, VP, secretary and treasurer) and the at-large Board members expire with the upcoming elections. Several incumbents are term-limited and may not continue in their current positions. Katie MacFarlane is heading up the Nominations Committee for these elections. It is the Committee's job to collect the names of people interested in running (and those nominated by others), verify their eligibility and report the names of all the candidates to the Executive Committee. If you want more information about the elections or the various positions, you can ask Katie or contact any other member of the Executive Committee.

You can get imported, local honey from the Swiss Embassy's apiary next Saturday, October 29, from 9 am to 1 pm at the back gate on 29th St. Last year the stock was quickly depleted.

Carmel reports that it is on track to start demolition of the Wardman Park on October 31. Matt Brehm is the on-site point of contact. He can be reached by email or SMS/voice at 202.899.5521.

WPCA's next Meet-Your-Neighbors Happy Hour will be Wednesday November 9, 6 to 8 pm, at District Kitchen, 2606 Connecticut. RSVP here.

WMATA has announced that it is undertaking the "first comprehensive effort in its 50-year history to re-envision a customer-focused bus network for the National Capital Region." There's a survey where you can tell them what you think.
